The Clever Rabbit

Once upon a time, deep in the forest, there lived a clever little rabbit.

The animals of the forest were afraid of a fierce lion who roared loudly and scared everyone.

One day, the lion declared, "Each day, one animal must come to me, or I will eat you all!"

The animals were terrified and took turns going to the lion. When it was the rabbit's turn, he had a clever plan. He took his time and arrived late.

"Why are you so late?" roared the lion.

"Oh mighty lion," said the rabbit, "Another lion tried to stop me, saying he was the king!"

"Another lion?" shouted the lion. "Take me to him!"

The rabbit led the lion to a deep well. When the lion looked in, he saw his reflection and thought it was the other lion. Angry, he jumped into the well to fight and couldn't get out.

The animals cheered! The clever rabbit had saved them all.

Moral: Wisdom is stronger than strength.